JUDGMENT

DEPUTY BAILIFF: The Court approves of what has been arranged. We wish to thank both counsel for their efforts because they have had good and helpful results which will avoid great difficulty for the Court. If, sadly, things were to go wrong again, we invite counsel to call us back at short notice. We would be reluctant for the Childrens' Office to let things run on for a long time - and I don't want this to be reported by the press, although I don't think that the press are here - because on some occasions they have allowed matters to drift on for a long time before any further report has come back to us and that has caused more difficulty than dealing with something whilst it is partly new. If things did break down then don't hesitate to call us but we hope that the matter will remain adjourned for evermore.
