THE LORDS pronounced the following interlocutor: ' Find that the raisers of the advocation have not yet instructed a good cause for opposing the police-bill in question; or that the Trades-house had a good ground for voting money out of the funds for maintaining that opposition; and therefore continue the interdict pronounced by the Magistrates of Glasgow, and decern: Find them also liable in expences, of which ordain an account to be given in; and, in the process of declarator, find that the letter of guildry, dated the 6th February 1605, is still in force, and that the parties must conform thereto; and decern and declare accordingly: Find the pursuers liable in expences, and ordain an account to be given in.'

A reclaiming petition was appointed to be answered. Answers were given in, but the petition was afterwards withdrawn. In these papers, the points chiefly insisted on, were the merits of the police-bill, and the nature of the opposition made to it.

Privilege to Soldiers Exercising Trades within Burgh.

No 118.

1777. March 25. TAILORS of GLASGOW against MACKECHNY and Others.

THE LORDS found, That the statute 3d Geo. III. c. 8. which allows all officers, soldiers, &c. and also the wives and children of such officers and soldiers, to set up and exercise such trades as they are apt and able for; within any town of Great Britain, does not entitle the daughter of a soldier to confer that privilege upon her husband.
