HARBOURS, DOCKS, PIERS AND FERRIES

The Pennan Harbour Revision Order 2014

Made - - - - 4th June 2014

Coming into force - - 5th June 2014

The Scottish Ministers (the “Ministers”) make the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by section 14(1), (2A) and (3) of the Harbours Act 1964⁽¹⁾ and all other powers enabling the Ministers to do so.

In accordance with section 14(1) of that Act, this Order is made in relation to a harbour which is being improved, maintained or managed by a harbour authority in the exercise and performance of statutory powers and duties, for achieving objects specified in Schedule 2 to that Act⁽²⁾.

In accordance with section 14(2) of that Act—

- (a) this Order is made following a written application to the Ministers by the Pennan Harbour Trustees (“the applicant”) being the authority engaged in improving, maintaining or managing the harbour; and
- (b) the Ministers are satisfied that the making of this Order is desirable in the interests of securing the improvement, maintenance, or management of the harbour in an efficient and economical manner.

In accordance with section 14(2A) of that Act, the objects for achieving which this Order is made include repealing superseded, obsolete or otherwise unnecessary statutory provisions of local application affecting the harbour.

Notice has been published by the applicant in accordance with the requirements of paragraph 10 of Schedule 3 to that Act⁽³⁾.

In accordance with paragraph 14 of that Schedule, the Ministers have required the applicant to serve Aberdeenshire Council, the Royal Yachting Association, the Chamber of Shipping and the Northern Lighthouse Board with copies of the draft order and newspaper notice being the documents required to be served under paragraph 13.

(1) 1964 c.40; section 14 was relevantly amended by the Transport Act 1981 (c.56), Schedule 6, paragraphs 2.3, 4(1) and 14 and Schedule 12 and the Transport and Works Act 1992 (c.42), Schedule 3, paragraph 1. See Sections 14(7) and 57(1) of the Harbours Act 1964 for the definitions of “the appropriate Minister” and “the Minister”. The functions of the Minister of the Crown were transferred to the Scottish Ministers by virtue of section 53 of the Scotland Act 1998 (c.46).

(2) Schedule 2 was relevantly amended by the Transport and Works Act 1992 (c.42), Schedule 3, paragraph 9.

(3) Paragraph 10 of Schedule 3 was substituted by S.I. 1999/3445 and is amended by the Transport and Works (Scotland Act 2007 (asp 8), section 25(5)(b) and (c).

Citation and commencement

1. (1) This Order may be cited as the Pennan Harbour Revision Order 2014 and comes into force on the day after the day on which it is made.

(2) The Pennan Harbour Order 1903 and this Order may be cited together as the Pennan Harbour Orders 1903 to 2014.

Interpretation

2. In this Order—

“enactment” includes an Act of the Scottish Parliament and an instrument under such an Act;

“the harbour” has the same meaning as in the Pennan Harbour Order 1903;

“the new constitution date” means the date on which this Order comes into force;

“the Trustees” means the Pennan Harbour Trustees.

Incorporation of sections of the Commissioners Clauses Act 1847 and of the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act 1847

3. (1) Sections 2, 3, 56, 58 to 60 and 65 of the Commissioners Clauses Act 1847 (so far as applicable and not inconsistent with the Pennan Harbour Orders 1903 to 2014) shall be incorporated with this Order.

(2) Sections 1 to 4, 32 to 35, 37 to 39, 42, 51, 54 to 58 and 63 to 65 of the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act 1847 (so far as applicable and not inconsistent with the Pennan Harbour Orders 1903 to 2014) shall be incorporated with this Order, subject to the modifications stated in paragraphs (3), (4) and (5).

(3) In construing the provisions of the Commissioners Clauses Act 1847 and the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act 1847 as incorporated with this Order, the expression “the special Act” means this Order and in the latter Act, the expression “the undertakers” means the Trustees.

(4) Section 63 of the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act 1847 (penalty on vessels lying near the entrance of harbour or dock without permission) shall have effect subject to the modification that for the words from “be liable to” to the end of the section there are substituted the words “be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale”.

(5) Section 65 of the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act 1847 (harbour master may remove vessel for purpose of repairing harbour or dock if the master neglects or refuses to do so) shall have effect subject to the omission of the words from “Provided always” to the end of the section.

Constitution of the Trustees

4. (1) On or after the new constitution date, the Trustees shall consist of five persons appointed by the Trustees.

(2) Each Trustee appointed shall be a person who appears to the Trustees to have special knowledge, experience or ability appropriate to the efficient, effective and economic discharge by the Trustees of their functions including in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) special knowledge, experience or ability in one or more of the following matters—

- (a) management of harbours;
- (b) usage of port facilities;
- (c) commercial boating activities;
- (d) industrial, commercial and financial matters;

- (e) administration;
- (f) the organisation of employees;
- (g) the fishing industry;
- (h) financial management;
- (i) the laws relating to Scotland;
- (j) safety management;
- (k) commercial marketing;
- (l) environmental matters affecting harbours;
- (m) civil engineering;
- (n) local government and community interests;
- (o) recreational, sporting and leisure activities including without prejudice to the generality, recreational and competitive boating activities; and
- (p) any other skills and matters considered from time to time by the Trustees to be relevant to the discharge of them of their functions, and the Trustees shall secure, so far as reasonable practicable, that the persons appointed by them will, between them, have special knowledge, experience and ability in a broad and complementary range of matters relevant to the efficient, effective and economic discharge by them of their functions.

(3) In making an appointment under paragraph (1) or article 8 below, the Trustees shall take account of any guidance issued by the Scottish Ministers from time to time with respect to the exercise of such functions.

Appointment and terms of office of first Trustees

5. The first Trustees appointed under article 4(1) shall hold office as follows:—

- (a) two shall hold office from the new constitution date until 31 December 2015;
- (b) two shall hold office from the new constitution date until 31 December 2016; and
- (c) one shall hold office from the new constitution date until 31 December 2017, as the Trustees shall specify when making each of those appointments.

Terms of office of subsequent Trustees

6. A Trustee appointed under article 4(1) (other than the first Trustees appointed under that provision) shall, unless appointed to fill a casual vacancy and subject to the provisions of this Order, hold office for a period of three years from 1st January next following appointment.

Declaration to be made by Trustees

7. No person shall be capable of acting as a Trustee until the declaration set out in Schedule 1 to this Order has been made and a person shall cease to be a Trustee if that declaration has not been made within three months of the date of appointment.

Casual Vacancies

8. (1) A casual vacancy arising in the office of a Trustee shall be filled by the appointment of a Trustee by the other Trustees.

(2) A Trustee appointed to fill a casual vacancy under this article shall hold office (unless that person previously dies or otherwise ceases to be a Trustee) during the remainder of the term for which the Trustee in whose place that person was appointed, would, in ordinary course, have continued in office.

Disqualification of Trustees

9. If the Trustees are satisfied that a Trustee:—
- (a) has without the permission of the Trustees been absent from meetings of the Trustees during a period—
 - (i) when three such meetings have been held, or
 - (ii) of three consecutive months,whichever is the longer;
 - (b) has become bankrupt or made an arrangement with creditors; or
 - (c) is incapacitated by physical or mental illness from discharging the functions of a Trustee; or is otherwise unable, unwilling or unfit to discharge the functions of a Trustee;

the Trustees may declare the office of such a person as a Trustee to be vacant and thereupon the office shall become vacant.

Indemnity insurance for Trustees

10. The Trustees may enter into, and pay premiums for, a contract of insurance to indemnify the Trustees jointly or severally against personal liability arising from any act or omission of the Trustees collectively or individually not being an act or omission which the Trustee or Trustees in question knew to be a breach of duty or, concerning which, the Trustee or Trustees was or were reckless as to whether it was such a breach.

Incidental provisions relating to Trustees

11. On and after the new constitution date the provision of Schedule 2 to this Order shall have effect with respect to the Trustees.

General Powers of Trustees

12. (1) The Trustees may take such steps from time to time as they consider necessary or expedient for the improvement, maintenance and management of the harbour and the accommodation and facilities afforded in or connected with the harbour.

(2) For those purposes, and without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), the Trustees may:—

- (a) improve, maintain, regulate, manage, mark and light the harbour and provide harbour facilities in the harbour (including facilities for the supply by the Trustees of fuel for vessels);
- (b) subscribe for or acquire shares or securities of any body corporate;
- (c) maintain such reserve funds as they think fit;
- (d) invest any sums not immediately required for the purposes of the harbour;
- (e) turn their resources to account so far as not required for those purposes; and
- (f) do all other things which in their opinion are necessary or expedient to facilitate the proper carrying on or development of the harbour.

(3) This article is without prejudice to any powers of the Trustees under or by virtue of any other enactment.

Harbour Charges

13. On and after the new constitution date the Trustees may, subject to the provisions of the Pennan Harbour Orders 1903 to 2014 demand, recover and receive for the use of the harbour, such sums, other than ship, passenger and goods dues, as the Trustees may from time to time determine.

General Byelaws

14. (1) The Trustees may from time to time make byelaws for the efficient management and regulation of the harbour.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), byelaws made under this article may provide for—

- (a) regulating the use, operation and superintendence of the harbour and the berths, quays, piers, warehouses, sheds, landing places, equipment, works and conveniences (including moorings) in the harbour;
- (b) regulating the admission to, and the movement within, and the departure of vessels from, the harbour, or the removal of vessels;
- (c) regulating the shipping and unshipping, landing, warehousing, stowing, depositing and removing of goods within the harbour;
- (d) regulating the berthing and mooring of vessels within the harbour;
- (e) preventing damage or injury to any goods, vehicle, plant, machinery, property or person within the harbour;
- (f) regulating the conduct of all persons within the harbour not being members of a police force or officers or servants of the Crown whilst in the execution of their duties;
- (g) regulating the placing and maintenance of moorings within the harbour;
- (h) preventing and removing obstructions or impediments within the harbour;
- (i) regulating the use of ferries within the harbour;
- (j) regulating in the harbour the use of yachts, sailing boats, sailboards, rowing boats, rowing punts, pleasure craft and other small craft;
- (k) regulating or prohibiting the activities in the harbour of divers, surfers, water skiers and other persons engaged in similar recreational pursuits but not so as to prohibit the use for navigation of the vessels referred to in sub-paragraph (j);
- (l) regulating the launching of vessels within the harbour;
- (m) prohibiting persons in or entering the harbour, or any part of the harbour, from smoking in open spaces in the harbour;
- (n) regulating the movement and parking of vehicles within the harbour;
- (o) regulating the exercise of the powers vested in the harbour master;
- (p) making the carrying out of specified harbour operations, or the conduct of persons in the harbour, subject to the approval (with or without conditions), control or direction of the harbour master, and for authorising the harbour master to take such action as may be reasonably required in default of compliance with any such condition, control or direction;
- (q) the conservation of the fauna and flora in the harbour.

(3) Byelaws made under this article may:—

- (a) provide for imposing upon persons found guilty on summary conviction of offending against them, or against any condition, requirement or direction imposed, made or given under them, fines not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale;

- (b) relate to the whole of the harbour or to any part of the harbour;
- (c) make different provisions for different parts of the harbour or in relation to different classes of vessels or vehicles.

Confirmation of Byelaws

15. (1) Byelaws made by the Trustees under this Order shall not come into operation until they have been confirmed by the Scottish Ministers.

(2) At least one month before an application for confirmation of byelaws is made by the Trustees to the Scottish Ministers, notice of the intention to apply for confirmation and of the place at which and times during which a copy of the byelaws shall be open to inspection shall be published as follows:—

- (a) once in the Edinburgh Gazette; and
- (b) once in each of two successive weeks in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the harbour is situated.

(3) Not later than the first date on which the notice under paragraph (2) is published, the Trustees shall send a copy of the notice to the Chief Executive Officer of the Aberdeenshire Council and to the Scottish Ministers.

(4) The Trustees shall supply a copy of the byelaws or of part of the byelaws to a person who shall apply for it on payment of a reasonable charge.

(5) During the period of one month after completion of the publication of any notice required by paragraph (2), any person may make in writing to the Scottish Ministers any objection to or representation respecting the byelaws to which the notice relates.

(6) Subject to paragraph (8), the Scottish Ministers may confirm the byelaws in the form submitted to them with such modifications as they think fit or may refuse to confirm them.

(7) Where the Scottish Ministers propose to make a modification that appears to them to be substantial they shall inform the Trustees and require them to take any steps the Scottish Ministers consider necessary for informing persons likely to be concerned with the modification, and the Scottish Ministers shall not confirm the byelaws until such period has elapsed as the Scottish Ministers think reasonable for consideration of, and comment upon, the proposed modification by the Trustees and by other persons who have been informed of it.

(8) A copy of the byelaws when confirmed shall on application be furnished to any person on payment of such reasonable sum as the Trustees may determine.

Borrowing powers

16. The Trustees may from time to time borrow, by any methods they see fit, such sums of money as they think necessary for the purposes of meeting their obligations in carrying out their functions; and where monies are borrowed by the Trustees under this article, the Trustees may, if they see fit, borrow those monies upon the security of their assets for the time being or of their revenues or of both their assets and their revenues.

Repeals

17. On the new constitution date the enactment mentioned in the first and second columns of Schedule 3 to this Order shall be repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that Schedule.

SCHEDULE 2

Article 11

INCIDENTAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO TRUSTEES

Appointment of Chair of Trustees

1. There shall be a chair of the Trustees who shall be appointed by the Trustees from among their number.
2. The first chair taking office after the new constitution date shall be appointed at the first meeting of the Trustees referred to in paragraph 6 and, subject to paragraph 7, shall, unless that person resigns as chair or ceases to be a Trustee, continue in office as chair until the initial term of office as a Trustee has expired.
3. Subject to paragraph 4, every chair subsequently appointed under paragraph 1 shall, unless that person resigns office as chair or ceases to be a Trustee, hold office for a period of three years.
4. If the Trustees are satisfied that the chair should cease to hold office as such, they may terminate that appointment and appoint another member to be chair during the remainder of the term for which the former chair was appointed.
5. (1) On a casual vacancy occurring in the office of chair of the Trustees the vacancy shall be filled by the Trustees at a meeting held as soon as practicable after the vacancy occurs.
(2) A Trustee appointed under this paragraph to fill a casual vacancy in the office of chair shall, unless that person resigns office or ceases to be a Trustee, hold that office during the remainder of the term for which the chair whom that person replaces was appointed.

Meetings of Trustees

6. (1) The first meeting of the Trustees after the new constitution date shall be convened as soon as practicable by the Clerk to the Trustees for such date as the Clerk may fix. The Clerk shall make arrangements for notice of that meeting to be sent by post to each of the Trustees.
(2) The Trustees shall meet at least twice in every year.

Vacation of office by Trustees

7. A Trustee may resign office at any time by notice in writing given to the chair of the Trustees or, if that Trustee is the chair, the Clerk.

Reappointment of Trustees

8. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, a vacating appointed Trustee shall be eligible for reappointment as a Trustee unless that person has been disqualified from the office under article 9.
(2) Subject to paragraph (4) a vacating appointed Trustee shall not be eligible for reappointment as a Trustee where, immediately before appointment, that person has held office for four consecutive terms unless that person is the chair of the Trustees.
(3) Subject to paragraph (4) a chair of the Trustees who is an appointed Trustee shall not be eligible for reappointment as a Trustee where, immediately before appointment, that person has held office as a Trustee for five consecutive terms.
(4) Notwithstanding the terms of paragraphs (2) and (3), a vacating appointed Trustee and a chair of the Trustees who is an appointed Trustee shall be eligible for re-appointment as a Trustee for a further term or further terms after the completion of the consecutive terms referred to in those paragraphs if in the reasonable opinion of the Trustees there is no other suitable applicant for appointment as a Trustee.

- (5) For the purposes of this paragraph, “term” does not include:—
- (a) a term referred to in article 5(a) or (b); or
 - (b) the remainder of a term during which the Trustee was appointed to fill a casual vacancy under article 8.
- (6) In this paragraph “appointed Trustee” means a Trustee appointed under article 4(1).

Reappointment of chair

9. (1) Subject to paragraph (2) a chair of the Trustees shall not be eligible for reappointment as the chair where, immediately before appointment, that person has served as a chair for three consecutive terms.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a chair of the Trustees shall be eligible for reappointment for a further term or terms after the completion of the three consecutive terms referred to in paragraph (1) if in the reasonable opinion of the Trustees there is no other suitable person for appointment as the chair of the Trustees.

- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph “term” does not include:—
- (a) a term served by the Trustee as a chair under paragraph 2 where that term is less than three years; or
 - (b) the remainder of a term during which the Trustee was appointed to fill a casual vacancy in the office of chair under paragraph 5.

Committees and Co-optees

10. The Trustees may, consistently with their duties and subject to such conditions as they think fit, delegate any of their functions to a committee of the Trustees and may from time to time co-opt a person or persons to assist them in the fulfilment of their duties as Trustees and, if appropriate, pay to that person the usual professional remuneration.

Proceedings of Trustees and Committees

11. (1) Notwithstanding the generality of paragraph 10 the Trustees may establish short or fixed term consultation groups, which, if established, the Trustees shall consult on matters affecting the remit of the group on its conception.

(2) The Trustees shall make arrangements for such consultation group to meet not less than twice a year.

(3) The Trustees shall take into consideration any matter, recommendation or representation which may from time to time be referred or made to them by the consultation group whether or not the consultation group has been consulted by the Trustees on the matter, recommendation or representation so referred or so made.

(4) Appointments to the consultation groups established under this paragraph shall be made by the Trustees and thereafter any properly constituted organisation that can demonstrate they represent a grouping of stakeholders or other material stakeholder interest in the harbour not already represented may apply to the consultation group for membership. Membership will not unreasonably be refused to such an organisation.

(5) The consultation group may determine its own quorum and procedure and shall appoint a chair to progress the remit of the group.

(6) An individual member of such consultation group, may on giving notice in writing to the chair of the consultation group, send a substitute to any meeting of the body.

(7) A member of the consultation group may hold office for a period of three years from the date of appointment and at the end of that period shall be eligible for re-appointment, up to a maximum of three terms should the remit of the consultation group extend to that period of time.

(8) A member of the consultation group may resign office at any time by notice in writing to the chair of the Trustees.

12. The acts and proceedings of the Trustees or of any committee of the Trustees, shall not be invalidated by any vacancy in their number or by any defect in the appointment, or the qualification for appointment, of any person as a Trustee or as chair of the Trustees or committee.

13. The quorum required for a meeting of the Trustees shall be three.

14. If a Trustee is in any way directly or indirectly interested in any contract or proposed contract to which the Trustees are, or would be, a party and is present at a meeting of the Trustees or of any committee of the Trustees at which that contract is the subject of consideration, that person shall as soon as practicable after the commencement of the meeting disclose that fact at the meeting and shall not take part in any deliberation or decision of the Trustees or committee with respect to that contract.

15. If at any meeting of the Trustees the chair is not present the Trustees shall choose one of their number to be the chair of the meeting.

16. (1) Every question at a meeting of the Trustees or of a committee of the Trustees shall be decided by a majority vote of the Trustees present and voting.

(2) If at any meeting of the Trustees or of a committee of the Trustees there is an equality of votes on any question the chair of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote which that person may exercise for or against the status quo.

Authentication of seal and other documents

17. The application of the seal of the Trustees shall be authenticated by the signature of the chair of the Trustees or some other Trustee authorised by the Trustees to authenticate the application of the seal, and of the Clerk or some person authorised by the Trustees to act in that behalf.

18. The Trustees may authorise a person to act instead of the Clerk under paragraph 17 whether or not the Clerk is absent or incapable of acting.

19. Any notice, licence or other document given or issued by the Trustee shall, unless the contrary intention is expressed, be sufficiently authorised if signed by the Clerk or a Trustee appointed for that purpose by the Trustees.

Remuneration of Trustees

20. The Trustees may pay to the chair and other Trustees such salary, allowances and expenses as the Trustees from time to time determine.

General

21. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the procedure and business of the Trustees and of any committee of the Trustees shall be regulated in such manner as the Trustees may from time to time determine.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.
