BETWEEN

Claimant

and

Respondents

Miss S Shah-Hosseini

Stonebeach Ltd

JUDGMENT

Pursuant to rule 37(1)(d) of the Employment Tribunals Rules of Procedure 2013, the claim form is struck out on the ground that it has not been actively pursued.

REASONS

1. On 11 April 2019 the Claimant presented a claim form containing complaints of unfair dismissal and racial discrimination and a claim for unpaid wages.
2. The Respondents did not present a response and it later emerged that they were in administration. The administration ended on 29 October 2019. The Respondents are in liquidation.
3. By a letter of 19 July 2021 the Tribunal advised the Claimant that the Respondents were in liquidation and asked if she wished to proceed to a hearing. She did not reply.
4. On 13 August 2007 the Tribunal wrote to the Claimant stating that a judge was considering striking out the claim on the ground that it was not being actively pursued, and inviting her to show cause why such a judgment should not be given.
5. No reply having been received, and it being impracticable to progress the case without the Claimant's co-operation, I strike out the claim form under rule 18(1)(d) of the Employment Tribunals Rules of Procedure 2004.
