DECISION

The Tribunal declares that the Respondent is liable to pay to the Applicant the sum of £1,325.07 in relation to service charges demanded by the Applicant in respect of which the Respondent has not provided any arguable defence either as to reasonableness or quantum.

1 The Applicant is the landlord of the property situate and known as 30 Dighton Court, John Ruskin Street, London, SE5 0PR (the property). They issued a claim in Lambeth County Court claiming unpaid service charges and interest from the Respondent tenant for the service charge years 2013 and 2014.

2 The matter was transferred to the Tribunal by an order of the court on 25 January 2014 and Directions were issued by the Tribunal on 5 and 26 February and 7 April 2014.

3 The matter came before a Tribunal on 10 June 2014 as a paper consideration and neither party was present but the Tribunal considered all the papers submitted to it including those relating to the county court proceedings.

4 The Applicant's claim is based on s27 Landlord and Tenant Act 1985, relating to the payability of and reasonableness of service charges as between landlord and tenant. Such a matter falls within the jurisdiction of the tribunal.

5 The Tribunal notes that the Respondent has not provided any defence to the claim made by the Applicant, nevertheless, under its statutory jurisdiction it is still required to ascertain that the sums claimed by the Applicant are chargeable within the terms of the lease and are in themselves reasonable.

6 The Applicant claims that the Respondent is required to pay service charges in accordance with an estimate provided by the Applicant for the service charge years 2013 and 2014 in the sum of £1,325.07 including interest of £31.72 (assessed at 25 September 2013 and accruing thereafter at a daily rate of £0.18).

7 By clause 2 (3) (a) of the lease dated 24 July 1989 and made between the Applicant and the Respondent and another under which the Respondent holds the premises, the Respondent covenanted jointly and severally to pay the service charges set out in the third schedule of the lease. This includes payment for heating and water and also provides for payments in advance under an estimate provided by the Applicant landlord (para 2(2) of the third schedule of the lease).

8 The Applicant is entitled to charge interest on outstanding service charges under clause 2 (3) (b) of the lease.

9 The Applicant is similarly entitled to include in its service charge statements and invoices a sum representing a management fee (Clause 6(7) of the third schedule) and an administration fee (Clause 7(7) of the third schedule).

10 In the absence of any defence by the Respondent the Tribunal finds that the Applicant's claim is well founded and that the estimated amounts claimed are reasonable and thus payable in full by the Respondent.

11 The Law

Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 (as amended)

Section 18

- (1) In the following provisions of this Act "service charge" means an amount payable by a tenant of a dwelling as part of or in addition to the rent -
 - (a) which is payable, directly or indirectly, for services, repairs, maintenance, improvements or insurance or the landlord's costs of management, and
 - (b) the whole or part of which varies or may vary according to the relevant costs.
- (2) The relevant costs are the costs or estimated costs incurred or to be incurred by or on behalf of the landlord, or a superior landlord, in connection with the matters for which the service charge is payable.
- (3) For this purpose -
 - (a) "costs" includes overheads, and

- (b) costs are relevant costs in relation to a service charge whether they are incurred, or to be incurred, in the period for which the service charge is payable or in an earlier or later period.

Section 19

- (1) Relevant costs shall be taken into account in determining the amount of a service charge payable for a period -
 - (a) only to the extent that they are reasonably incurred, and
 - (b) where they are incurred on the provisions of services or the carrying out of works, only if the services or works are of a reasonable standard;and the amount payable shall be limited accordingly.
- (2) Where a service charge is payable before the relevant costs are incurred, no greater amount than is reasonable is so payable, and after the relevant costs have been incurred any necessary adjustment shall be made by repayment, reduction or subsequent charges or otherwise.

Section 27A

- (1) An application may be made to the appropriate tribunal for a determination whether a service charge is payable and, if it is, as to -
 - (a) the person by whom it is payable,
 - (b) the person to whom it is payable,
 - (c) the amount which is payable,
 - (d) the date at or by which it is payable, and
 - (e) the manner in which it is payable.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies whether or not any payment has been made.
- (3) An application may also be made to the appropriate tribunal for a determination whether, if costs were incurred for services, repairs, maintenance, improvements, insurance or management of any specified description, a service charge would be payable for the costs and, if it would, as to -
 - (a) the person by whom it would be payable,
 - (b) the person to whom it would be payable,
 - (c) the amount which would be payable,
 - (d) the date at or by which it would be payable, and

 - (c) has been the subject of determination by a court, or
 - (d) has been the subject of determination by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to a post-dispute arbitration agreement.
- (5) But the tenant is not to be taken to have agreed or admitted any matter by reason only of having made any payment.

Section 20

- (1) Where this section applies to any qualifying works or qualifying long term agreement, the relevant contributions of tenants are limited in accordance with subsection (6) or (7) (or both) unless the consultation requirements have been either—
 - (a) complied with in relation to the works or agreement, or
 - (b) dispensed with in relation to the works or agreement by (or on appeal from) the appropriate tribunal .
- (2) In this section “relevant contribution”, in relation to a tenant and any works or agreement, is the amount which he may be required under the terms of his lease to contribute (by the payment of service charges) to relevant costs incurred on carrying out the works or under the agreement.
- (3) This section applies to qualifying works if relevant costs incurred on carrying out the works exceed an appropriate amount.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that this section applies to a qualifying long term agreement—
 - (a) if relevant costs incurred under the agreement exceed an appropriate amount, or
 - (b) if relevant costs incurred under the agreement during a period prescribed by the regulations exceed an appropriate amount.
- (5) An appropriate amount is an amount set by regulations made by the Secretary of State; and the regulations may make provision for either or both of the following to be an appropriate amount—
 - (a) an amount prescribed by, or determined in accordance with, the regulations, and
 - (b) an amount which results in the relevant contribution of any one or more tenants being an amount prescribed by, or determined in accordance with, the regulations.
- (6) Where an appropriate amount is set by virtue of paragraph (a) of subsection (5), the amount of the relevant costs incurred on carrying out the works or under the agreement which may be taken into account in determining the relevant contributions of tenants is limited to the appropriate amount.
- (7) Where an appropriate amount is set by virtue of paragraph (b) of that subsection, the amount of the relevant contribution of the tenant, or each of the tenants, whose relevant contribution would otherwise exceed the amount prescribed by, or determined in accordance with, the regulations is limited to the amount so prescribed or determined.]

Section 20B

- (1) If any of the relevant costs taken into account in determining the amount of any service charge were incurred more than 18 months before a demand for payment of the service charge is served on the tenant, then (subject to subsection (2)), the tenant shall not be liable to pay so much of the service charge as reflects the costs so incurred.

- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply if, within the period of 18 months beginning with the date when the relevant costs in question were incurred, the tenant was notified in writing that those costs had been incurred and that he would subsequently be required under the terms of his lease to contribute to them by the payment of a service charge.
