

FIRST-TIER TRIBUNAL
PROPERTY CHAMBER
(RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY)

Case reference	:	LON/00BJ/LDC/2017/0129
Property	:	Sesame Apartments, 4, Holman Road, London SW11 4PG
Applicant	:	Adriatic Land 3 Limited
Representative	:	Homeground Management Ltd
Respondent	:	Multiple Leaseholders identified in the application
Representative	:	In person
Type of application	:	Dispensation with the requirements to consult under S.20 Landlord & Tenant Act 1985
Tribunal member	:	Ms A Hamilton-Farey
Date of decision	:	11 December 2017

DECISION

1. The tribunal determines that dispensation from the requirements to consult leaseholders imposed by S.20 of the Landlord & Tenant Act 1985 should be allowed.
2. The tribunal directs the Applicant to display a copy of this decision in the common parts of the block.

Background:

3. On or around 9 November 2017 the Applicant made an application under S.20ZA of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 ("the Act") with the consultation requirements imposed by S.20 of the Act.

dispensation it would be that it would be without prejudice to a determination of whether the costs of the works are payable and/or reasonable.

14. The respondents are obviously in a difficult position. On the one hand they wish to minimise any costs for which they might be held liable and on the other, wish to ensure that they would be safe in the event of another fire. At the present time, they have not been able to explore alternatives.

Determination:

15. The tribunal is satisfied that it is reasonable to grant dispensation in these circumstances, even where some of the leaseholders have opposed the application; the leaseholders have not suggested that the works are not urgently required, although they have raised the issue of possible prejudice. At the present time, without any evidence from the leaseholders of what that prejudice might be, the tribunal does not consider that dispensation should be granted 'on terms'.

16. The tribunal informed the parties in its Directions that the only matter before it, would be whether to grant dispensation or not, and the statutory rights of leaseholders to challenge the reasonableness of the works themselves and/or the cost of the works are not disturbed. In due course the Applicant will have to inform leaseholders of their contributions towards the costs involved, and it will then be open to any leaseholder who wishes to challenge that decision to apply to this tribunal under S.27A of the Act.

17. Accordingly the tribunal grants dispensation from the requirements to consult under S.20 of the Landlord & Tenant Act 1985, and directs that the Applicant displays a copy of this decision in the common parts of the building.

18. The tribunal will issue copies of the decision directly to the leaseholders, in the envelopes provided by the Applicants.

Rights of appeal

By rule 36(2) of the Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal) (Property Chamber) Rules 2013, the tribunal is required to notify the parties about any right of appeal they may have.

If a party wishes to appeal this decision to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber), then a written application for permission must be made to the First-tier Tribunal at the regional office which has been dealing with the case.

The application for permission to appeal must arrive at the regional office within 28 days after the tribunal sends written reasons for the decision to the person making the application.

If the application is not made within the 28 day time limit, such application must include a request for an extension of time and the reason for not complying with the 28 day time limit; the tribunal will then look at such reason(s) and decide whether to allow the application for permission to appeal to proceed, despite not being within the time limit.

The application for permission to appeal must identify the decision of the tribunal to which it relates (i.e. give the date, the property and the case number), state the grounds of appeal and state the result the party making the application is seeking.
