(RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY)

Case Reference : CHI/43UD/LDC/2018/0107

Property : Cavendish Place, St Marys Way, Guildford
GU2 8NJ

Applicant : Cavendish Place (Guildford) Residents Association Limited

Representative : HML-Aldershot

Landlord : Fairhold Holdings (2006) Apartments Ltd

Respondents : N/A

Type of Application : To dispense with the requirement to consult lessees about major works

Tribunal Member(s) : Mr D Banfield FRICS

Date of Decision : 28 March 2019

DECISION

The Tribunal grants dispensation from the consultation requirements of S.20 Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 in respect of the roof repairs listed in the invoice from Vision First dated 14 November 2018.

In granting dispensation in respect of part of the Application the Tribunal makes no determination as to whether any service charge costs are reasonable or payable.

Background

1. The Applicant seeks dispensation under Section 20ZA of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 (the 1985 Act) from the consultation requirements required by Section 20 of the 1985 Act.
2. The Applicant explains that the lead on the front roof had perished allowing water ingress and damage to the flat below. The work was carried out on 29 & 30 November 2018 without statutory consultation in view of the inclement weather conditions expected at that time of year.
3. The Tribunal made Directions on 4 January 2019 requiring the Applicant to send a copy to each Lessee. Attached to the Directions was a form for the lessees to return to the Tribunal indicating whether the application was agreed with, whether a written statement was to be sent to the applicant and whether an oral hearing was required.
4. The Directions noted that those parties not returning the form and those agreeing to the application would be removed as Respondents
5. Two replies were received both of which agreed with the application. The lessees are therefore removed as Respondents as previously indicated.
6. No requests have been received for an oral hearing and the application is therefore determined on the papers received in accordance with Rule 31 of the Tribunal's procedural rules.
7. The only issue for the Tribunal is if it is reasonable to dispense with any statutory consultation requirements. This decision does not concern the issue of whether any service charge costs will be reasonable or payable.

The Law

8. The relevant section of the Act reads as follows:
 - 20ZA Consultation requirements:
 - a. (1) Where an application is made to a Leasehold Valuation Tribunal for a determination to dispense with all or any of the consultation requirements in relation to any qualifying works or qualifying long-term agreement, the Tribunal may make the determination if satisfied that it is reasonable to dispense with the requirements.
9. The matter was examined in some detail by the Supreme Court in the case of Daejan Investments Ltd v Benson. In summary the Supreme Court noted the following
 - b. The main question for the Tribunal when considering how to exercise its jurisdiction in accordance with section 20ZA (1) is the real prejudice to the tenants flowing from the landlord's breach of the consultation requirements.

- c. The financial consequence to the landlord of not granting a dispensation is not a relevant factor. The nature of the landlord is not a relevant factor.
- d. Dispensation should not be refused solely because the landlord seriously breached, or departed from, the consultation requirements.
- e. The Tribunal has power to grant a dispensation as it thinks fit, provided that any terms are appropriate.
- f. The Tribunal has power to impose a condition that the landlord pays the tenants' reasonable costs (including surveyor and/or legal fees) incurred in connection with the landlord's application under section 20ZA (1).
- g. The legal burden of proof in relation to dispensation applications is on the landlord. The factual burden of identifying some "relevant" prejudice that they would or might have suffered is on the tenants.
- h. The court considered that "relevant" prejudice should be given a narrow definition; it means whether non-compliance with the consultation requirements has led the landlord to incur costs in an unreasonable amount or to incur them in the provision of services, or in the carrying out of works, which fell below a reasonable standard, in other words whether the non-compliance has in that sense caused prejudice to the tenant.
- i. The more serious and/or deliberate the landlord's failure, the more readily a Tribunal would be likely to accept that the tenants had suffered prejudice.
- j. Once the tenants had shown a credible case for prejudice, the Tribunal should look to the landlord to rebut it.

Evidence

- 10. In a letter from HML dated 10 January 2019 it is explained that on 11 November 2018 it was reported that a roof leak had been detected over one of the flats.
- 11. A roofer was instructed and it was found that the lead on the flat roof had perished beyond repair and needed to be replaced.
- 12. An invoice dated 14 November 2018 detailed the work that had been carried out and photographs of the defects discovered have been provided.
- 13. A letter dated 10 January 2019 was sent to the lessees explaining the position, that the works had been carried out and that dispensation from consultation was being sought.

Determination

- 14. It appears that the works were urgent. No lessee has objected, and no evidence has been submitted identifying the type of prejudice referred to in paragraph 9 above. In these circumstances, I am prepared to grant the dispensation required.
- 15. The Tribunal therefore grants dispensation from the consultation requirements of S.20 Landlord and Tenant Act

1985 in respect of the roof repairs listed in the invoice from Vision First dated 14 November 2018.

16. In granting dispensation in respect of part of the Application the Tribunal makes no determination as to whether any service charge costs are reasonable or payable.

1. A person wishing to appeal this decision to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber) must seek permission to do so by making written application to the First-tier Tribunal at the Regional office, which has been dealing with the case. The application must arrive at the Tribunal within 28 days after the Tribunal sends to the person making the application written reasons for the decision.
2. If the person wishing to appeal does not comply with the 28-day time limit, the person shall include with the application for permission to appeal a request for an extension of time and the reason for not complying with the 28-day time limit; the Tribunal will then decide whether to extend time or not to allow the application for permission to appeal to proceed.
3. The application for permission to appeal must identify the decision of the Tribunal to which it relates, state the grounds of appeal and state the result the party making the appeal is seeking.
