Date of Decision : 13 October 2021

DECISION

The Tribunal determines that the price to be paid for the freehold interest is £6.00

The Tribunal determines that the amount of unpaid pecuniary rent (if any) payable for the property up to the date of the proposed conveyance is nil.

Background

1. By an Order of Judge Dobson sitting as a Judge of the County Court exercising the jurisdiction of a District Judge sitting at Havant Justice Centre on 19 August 2021 the Court issued a Vesting Order under section 27 of the Leasehold Reform Act 1967 for the sale of the freehold of the Property to the Claimants on such terms as may be determined by the First-tier Tribunal.
2. By the same Order the Court directed that the matter be transferred to the First-tier Tribunal to determine the price payable for a conveyance under the provisions of Section 21 of the Leasehold Reform Act 1967. The Tribunal is therefore required to determine the price payable for both the freehold and head-leasehold interests in the Property.
3. The Tribunal made Directions on 3 September 2021 setting out the information required to enable it to make its determination and a bundle has now been received containing a valuation report from Jolyon Moore MA dated 4 October 2021. An inspection of the property has not been made.

The Lease

4. The site is identified on the HM Land Registry plan edged red under title number GR336875 and is held by way of an Underlease dated 20 January 1909 between Charles Breakspear and Charles Edward Leach demising a term of 1000 years (less one day) from 19 March 1707 reserving a yearly ground rent of 1s 6d. The superior lease is dated 19 March 1707 between Richard Graves and William Summers demising a term of 1000 years from the same date reserving a yearly rent of 2s.

The Law

5. Section 27(5) of the Act provides:
The appropriate sum which in accordance with Section 27(3) of the Act to be paid in to Court is the aggregate of:
 - a. Such amount as may be determined by (or on appeal from) the appropriate Tribunal to be the price payable in accordance with Section 9 above; and
 - b. The amount or estimated amount (as so determined) of any pecuniary rent payable for the house and premises up to the date of the Conveyance which remains unpaid.
6. Section 9 of the Act sets out in detail the assumptions to be made and the procedure to be followed in carrying out the valuation. The effect of Section 27(1) is that the valuation date is the date on which the application was made to the Court.
7. There are various bases set out in Section 9 of the Act and the Tribunal determines that the appropriate basis is in Subsection 9(1) being that on 31 March 1990 the Rateable value of the house and premises was not above £500.

The Premises

8. The property comprises a detached three-bedroom bungalow built in 1983 and extended in 1997. There is a separate side garage the front half of which is part of this demise the rear part falling within the demise of the neighbouring property.

Evidence and Decision

9. In his valuation report Mr Moore has determined that the value for the purposes of Section 9 of The Act is £6.00.
10. Mr Moore made his determination of the Freehold value by capitalising the ground rent at 10% for 685.80 years arriving at £0.25 to which he added the value of the reversion based on an open market value of the property of £375,000, a site value proportion of 33.00% (£123,750) a modern ground rent at 4.75% (£5,878.13), a YP of 50 years at 4.75% deferred 685.80 years plus a Haresign addition of £375,000 deferred for 735.80 years at 4.75% . This produced the rounded sum of £0.25.
11. Mr Moore's determination of the Head Leasehold interest was on the "Minor Superior Tenancy" basis the price of which is calculated on a set formula and in this instance amounts to £5.43.
12. Adding the value of the two interests Mr Moore arrives at his rounded figure of £6.00.
13. Mr Moore bases his open market value on the sale of three houses in Arbour Close with values ranging between £315,000 and £352,000.
14. The Tribunal accepts Mr Moore's valuation as a fair reflection of the price and determines that the price to be paid for the Freehold and Head Leasehold interests is £6.00
15. The Tribunal determines that the amount of unpaid pecuniary rent (if any) payable for the property up to the date of the proposed conveyance is nil.
