

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 19 September 2011

Public Authority: Stamford Town Council
Address: Town Hall
St Mary's Hill
Stamford
Lincolnshire
PE9 2DR

Decision

1. The complainant requested copies of Stamford Town Council's standing orders.
2. The Commissioner's decision is that Stamford Town Council ('the council') breached regulation 10(1) by failing to disclose this information within the statutory time for compliance. He does not require the council to take any further action.

Request and response

3. On 25 May 2010 the complainant wrote to the council and requested "a copy of the council's standing orders". She received no response to this request and reiterated it on 6 January 2011.
4. The council disclosed the requested information on 8 March 2011.

Scope of the case

5. The complainant contacted the Commissioner to complain about the way her request for information had been handled. The Commissioner notes that the requested information has now been disclosed to the complainant and so the scope of the investigation is restricted to considering whether the council complied with the statutory time limits.

Reasons for decision

6. Section 10(1) of the Act provides that a public authority should comply with section 1(1) within 20 working days. Section 1(1) requires a public authority in receipt of a request to confirm whether it holds the requested information, and if so, disclose it to the applicant.
7. The complainant submitted her request on 25 May 2010, and did not receive the requested information until 8 March 2011. Consequently the Commissioner finds that the council has breached section 10(1) of the Act.

Right of appeal
