 - The MoJ must provide the complainant with a response to this request in accordance with its obligations under the FOIA.

Request and response

5. On 11 January 2017, the complainant wrote to the MoJ, via the whatdotheyknow website, and requested information in the following terms:

*"I would like to request a copy of the following document:
Ministry of Justice (2013) Economic Impact of a New Prison by Peter Brett Associates LLP
The report has been referenced in recent planning application documents in relation to the construction of HMP Wellingborough."*

6. The MoJ replied on 8 February 2017. It stated that "I am sorry for the delay and hope to be in a position to respond shortly."
7. The complainant contacted the MoJ again on 19 February 2017, 24 February 2017 and 8 March 2017.
8. At the date of this decision notice, the MoJ had yet to provide a substantive response.

Scope of the case

9. The complainant contacted the Commissioner on 10 March 2017 to complain about the way her request for information had been handled.
10. The Commissioner considers the scope of this decision notice to be the MoJ's compliance with section 10(1) of the FOIA.

Reasons for decision

11. Section 10(1) of the FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and "no later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt".
12. The Commissioner wrote to the MoJ on 4 May 2017 and asked it to respond to the complainant's request within 10 working days. The MoJ responded to the Commissioner on 17 May 2017 and said it hoped to send a response soon.
13. In this case the MoJ has breached section 10(1) by failing to respond to the request within 20 working days.

Other matters

14. As well as finding above that the MoJ is in breach of the FOIA, the Commissioner has also made a record of the delay in this case. This may form evidence in future action against the MoJ should evidence from other cases suggest that there are systemic issues within the MoJ that are causing delays.
