

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 16 November 2020

Public Authority: Cabinet Office

Address: 70 Whitehall
London
SW1A 2AS

Decision (including any steps ordered)

1. The complainant requested information from the Cabinet Office about specified contracts and correspondence. By the date of this notice the Cabinet Office had not issued a substantive response to this request.
2. The Commissioner's decision is that the Cabinet Office has failed to complete its deliberations on the balance of the public interest within a reasonable time and has therefore breached section 17(3) of the FOIA.
3. The Commissioner requires the Cabinet Office to take the following step to ensure compliance with the legislation.
  - Having confirmed that information is held within the scope of the request: either disclose the requested information or issue a refusal notice in accordance with the requirements of section 17 of the FOIA.
4. The Cabinet Office must take this step within 35 calendar days of the date of this decision notice. Failure to comply may result in the Commissioner making written certification of this fact to the High Court pursuant to section 54 of the Act and may be dealt with as a contempt of court.

Request and response

5. On 17 July 2020, the complainant wrote to the Cabinet Office and requested information in the following terms:

"Further to your recent reply, I would like to request the following more specific information:

From 1 December 2019 until the present:

1. All correspondence between the Special Advisers Dominic Cummings and Oliver Lewis on the one hand and Hanbury Strategy on the other concerning work Hanbury Strategy may do, did do or is doing for the Government.

2. All contracts between the Government and Hanbury Strategy for the following:

- a) The recruitment of special advisers.*
- b) Surveys of public opinion and polling.*
- c) Secondment of staff to the Cabinet office."*

6. On 10 August 2020, the Cabinet Office wrote to the complainant to explain that it held information relevant to part one of their request, but that it would need to extend the time taken to complete its public interest test considerations in respect of an exemption of the FOIA. A specific exemption of the FOIA was not cited by the Cabinet Office. The Cabinet Office stated that part two of the request would be handled separately, but no further details were provided on its progress.

Scope of the case

7. The complainant contacted the Commissioner on 14 September 2020 to complain about the delay in the Cabinet Office's consideration of the public interest test.
8. On 29 September 2020 the Commissioner wrote to the Cabinet Office, reminding it of its responsibilities and asking it to provide a substantive response to both parts of the complainant's request within 20 working days. To date, a substantive response has still not been provided.
9. The Commissioner has considered whether the Cabinet Office has complied with its obligations in relation to section 17 of the FOIA.

Reasons for decision

10. Section 1(1) of the FOIA states that:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him."

11. Section 10(1) of the FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and "not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt".

12. Section 17(3) of the FOIA states that where a public authority is relying on a qualified exemption, it can have a "reasonable" extension of time to consider the public interest in maintaining the exemption or disclosing the information.

13. Although the FOIA does not define what constitutes a reasonable time, the Commissioner considers it reasonable to extend the time to provide a full response, including public interest considerations, by up to a further 20 working days. This means that the total time spent dealing with the request should not exceed 40 working days, unless there are exceptional circumstances. A public authority would need to fully justify any extension beyond 40 working days.

14. In this case, the total time taken by the Cabinet Office has exceeded 40 working days. The Commissioner does not consider there to be any exceptional circumstances and finds that, by failing to complete its deliberations on the public interest within a reasonable time frame, the Cabinet Office has not complied with section 17(3).

15. The Cabinet Office is now required to finalise its public interest considerations under section 17(3) of the FOIA and respond to the complainant.
