Regulation 2 imposes obligations on institutions in the United Kingdom to annually publish information on a consolidated basis relating to their activities in the United Kingdom and those of their establishments in other countries.

Regulation 3 imposes an interim reporting obligation which must be met by 1 July 2014 which requires only part of the information to be reported. Additionally, under the interim reporting obligation global systemically important institutions must report certain information to the European Commission and Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs. Regulation 4 provides that where institutions are part of a group they may choose to meet their obligations to make information public by the parent undertaking publishing it for the entire group.

Regulation 5 provides that where an institution has already complied with Article 89 in another EEA State, or the information relating to it has been published in the United Kingdom for the purposes of these Regulations, it is to be treated as complying with these Regulations provided it publishes where the information can be obtained.

Regulation 6 provides that a breach of these Regulations will be enforced by the Prudential Regulation Authority in respect of institutions authorised by it and the Financial Conduct Authority in respect of all other institutions.
